This matter having come on regularly for informal interview before the Arizona Board of Osteopathic Examiners in Medicine and Surgery on the 20th day of February, 1987, the licentiate, LLOYD D. ARMOLD, D.O. holder of License No. 641 for the practice of osteopathic medicine in the State of Arizona, being duly noticed and appearing in person, and the Arizona Board of Osteopathic Examiners in Medicine and Surgery having conducted its informal interview of the licentiate and having afforded the licentiate an opportunity to be heard on the issues before it, and having considered all the material evidence in the matter, and being fully advised, makes the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

I

The Arizona Board of Osteopathic Examiners in Medicine and Surgery is the duly constituted authority for the regulation and control of the practice of osteopathic medicine in the State of Arizona.

II

LLOYD D. ARMOLD, D.O., is the holder of License No. 641 for the practice of osteopathic medicine in the State of Arizona.

III

For approximately the past two years, LLOYD D. ARMOLD, D.O. instructed unlicensed office personnel to administer intravenous medications in his absence from the office with no other physician on the premises or immediately available.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

IV

The Arizona Board of Osteopathic Examiners in Medicine and Surgery has jurisdiction over the subject matter hereof and over the licentiate pursuant to A.R.S. §32-1803 and §32-1855.

V

The conduct of Practitioner described in Paragraph III above constitutes unprofessional conduct as that term is defined in A.R.S. §32-1854.A.20, any conduct or practice contrary to recognized standards of ethics of the osteopathic medical profession or any conduct or practice which does or might constitute a danger to the health, welfare or safety of the patient or public.

VI

Grounds exist under A.R.S. §32-1855 to take disciplinary action against LLOYD D. ARMOLD, D.O.

ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Practitioner be and hereby is placed on probation for an indefinite period under the following terms and conditions:

1. Neither chelation therapy nor any other invasive procedure shall be performed in practitioner's absence or without a licensed physician on the premises.

2. Practitioner shall appear for an Informal Interview before the Board during the course of their meeting April 30th and May 1st in Tucson regarding the violation identified in this Order and the results of the followup investigation and thereafter upon reasonable notice.

3. Pursuant to A.R.S. §32-1855.01.A, Practitioner shall permit inspection of his records at any reasonable time upon request by the Board or its duly authorized agents or employees.

4. If Practitioner should fail to comply with all terms and conditions of this Order, then the Board may, after reasonable notice and hearing, take further disciplinary action.

5. Any violation of the Board's statutes, rules and regulations subsequent to this Order may be the basis for further disciplinary action.

ENTERED and effective this 20th day of February, 1987.
